

Curriculum for Priscilla and Tux: Brothers are Caring-A Picture Book for Kids

1. Do you have a good relationship with your brother, or sister? Tell us more.
2. If you don't have a sibling, do you have a good friend? Share something about your friend.
3. Why is it important to get along in a family? Name three reasons.
4. What are some fun things you do as a family or wish you could do as a family?
5. What are some things you don't like doing as a family? Why not?
6. What do you and your brother, sister, or friend like to do often? Why?
7. Try to do 1-2 activities below each week with your sibling or friend. Then create your own activities to share with each other.

NOISY GAMES: Clapping or dancing to your favorite song
Playing tag,
Making funny noises at each other,
Hide and seek with toys.

QUIET GAMES: Making hand shadows on the wall,
Drawing pictures together using one sheet of paper,
Blowing bubbles,
Lying on the grass as the clouds move forming shapes.

Ideas for games came from MomJunction.
www.momjunction.com